Availing Discount at Hiranandani Hospital.

Please refer to notification dated 13.12.2021 wherein the following was intimated to all Institute Employee:

The Institute has signed an MoU with Dr. L. H. Hiranandani Hospital for providing medical treatment to our employees and students. Under this MoU "The Hospital will charge the rates as per their schedule of rates and will offer 20% rebate to anyone bearing an IITB identity card for both OPD/IPD facilities except on medicines and consumables i.e. to all bonafide members/employees and their dependents, students, Retired employees and 15% rebate would be entitled to LCMS members of IIT Bombay".

All employees availing treatment from Hiranandani Hospital were advised to avail the discount by producing I-Card/document issued by the Institute to the Hiranandani Hospital.

However, it is observed that some of the employees are not availing this discount and submit bill for full amount to Institute for reimbursement.

All employees availing facilities from Hiranandani Hospital are once again advised to ensure availing the agreed discount by producing I-Card/document issued by the Institute to the Hiranandani Hospital to save public exchequer.

Please note that Institute will be constrained to regulate reimbursement to employees by deducting the applicable discount in case of failure on the part of employees in availing the discount by providing ID card to Hiranandani Hospital at the time of availing their Services.
